School Head Asks Support of Constitution Change

ROTARIANS HEAR PROS, CONS ON SALARY LEVEL

Four Speakers Give Arguments Friday Night

The Benton Rotary Club last Friday night sponsored a debate on a lively government issue—Amendment No. 2 to Kentucky's constitution, which will be on the ballot November 8. It would make possible the hiring of certain men in top government posts at salaries greater than the $5,000 limit set in 1891, which is still in effect.

Cliff Treas and H. H. Lovett Jr. presented arguments favoring passage of the amendment, which they termed the "only way that men of genuine administrative ability can be attracted to government, which they argued would lead to better personnel, more efficient administration, more economy in government in the long run, and increased services to the people."

One of the negative speakers was H. H. Lovett Sr., who presented the more salient arguments against the proposal—then indicated that while these arguments constituted the best reasons available for opposing the amendment, he felt personally that "much might be gained by supporting it." The other negative speaker, W. E. Wyatt, opposed the amendment because of political considerations and because he felt the line should be drawn on government expenditures.

No action was taken by the club but several members remained after the formal session to discuss personally the many issues involved.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. McPhee of Benton Route 1, were in Evansville last Friday to attend the funeral of Robert D. Hamilton of Madison, Wisc., Mr. McPhee's nephew.

PENNSALT PLANS TO ADD TO PLANT

One of Keys In Big Chain

The Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company soon after the first of 1950 will begin construction of a $250,000 addition to its plant near Calvert City. The new facilities will be for production of sodium bifluoride, an agent used in the manufacture of laundry products and for other purposes, according to Robert Ragsdale, office manager at the plant.

Operation of the extension is expected to start early next spring if construction starts and proceeds as scheduled.

"Pennsalt plans to expand this plant right along, as business permits," Mr. Ragsdale added.

The addition will result in employment of an undetermined number of new workers. Approximately 40 persons are employed at the plant now. As the plant expands, the general operation staff also will be increased, according to the office manager.

Tribune-Democrat Adds "Ad" Man To Office Staff

The Tribune-Democrat today announced the addition of Paul R. Ragsdale to its staff as advertising manager.

Mr. Ragsdale, who has managed prize-winning newspapers in Illinois and has had several years experience in both news, advertising and linotype operation, also will assist in the editorial department.

THIS IS THE PRICE

Kentucky is paying in many cases by having "little men" in "big jobs" because of the $5,000 salary limit. Men with "know how"—even at twice the salary—would be able to SAVE the taxpayers' money and give the state more service. Poor management is the real road to wastefulness and high taxes. If you want competent men in Kentucky's big jobs, consider strongly a YES vote on Amendment No. 2, which will make it possible to get them.

If you want to Economize With Your Tax Money, Hire Men Capable of Being Economical!

Scott Shemwell Is County Corn King

Scott Shemwell Is Winner of Corn Derby

When any farmer in Marshall County produces more than 100 bushels of corn per acre that is news. When it is done on a poor crop year that gives the neighbors something to talk about. It was done this year by two farmers in the county Corn Derby sponsored by the Farm Bureau. Scott Shemwell of Benton Route 2, was the winner of $250.00, first prize, by producing 103.3 bushels per acre. He selected a level piece of upland that had been in red clover the past three years. The land was limed with two tons of limestone in 1944. After the

Other prize winners in the Corn Derby were:

Elwood Houser, 101.4 bushels, $150.00
Tommy Inman, 79.5 bushels, $100.00
Dan Irvan, 78.7 bushels, $75.00
Charlie Cone, 77.4 bushels, $50.00
A. L. McGregor, 74.3 bushels, $25.00

Other plots harvested were:

Alvie Edwards, 62.3 bu.
Grover Seaford, 59.7 bu.
Marvin Jones, 56.5 bu.
Elwood Gore, 54.9 bu.
Jesse Teckenbrock, 46.6 bu.
Dalton Gore, 46.2 bu.

It was felt by County Agent J. Homer Miller one of the contributing factors to low yields was insufficient number of stalks per acre. Most corn should be planted thicker for maximum yields.

RETURN FROM VISIT WITH RELATIVES IN JACKSON

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wes Lyles have returned from a visit with Mrs. Lyles' brother, Tom Phillips, and family in Jackson, Mississippi.

They were accompanied on the trip by their son, Kenneth, and daughter, Barbara, also Junior Cloud, son-in-law. Mr. Phillips is a former Marshall County and is a general contractor in Jackson.

Youth Problems Are for Adults Too, Group Told

"TODAY'S Family and Tomorrow's World," a talk by Mrs. Howard J. Maughn, national vice-president of the Congress of Parents and Teachers, was one of the highlights of the 21st annual fall conference of the First Kentucky District of the organization Tuesday at Gilbertsville.

Mrs. Maughn spoke at the afternoon session, during which another speaker, Mrs. John E. Kirksey of Paducah, state president, discussed "By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them."

The afternoon session was held at 10 o'clock with a call to order by Mrs. Randolph S. Gore, district president, and an invocation by the Rev. G. E. Clayton, pastor of the Calvert City Methodist Church.

Joe Bert Howard, principal of the Gilbertsville School, gave a welcome address and W. B. Moser of Murray, first vice-president, gave the response. This was followed by a salute to the Flag led by Boy Scout Jimmy Goheen and Girl Scout Roberta Morrow.

ASSEMBLY singing was led by Mrs. George Huber, accompanied by Mrs. Marvin Padgett, district music chairman. The afternoon session convened by Mrs. Lewis C. Sowell, program chairman. The Gilbertsville School presented Dwight Wilkerson in a reading, "High Culture in Dixie." Wilma Evans in a solo, "Vivienne Melody," and the "third and fourth grades in an action song, "Mud Pies."

Stefan Foster selections were presented by the upper grades. Miss Ruby E. Smith, assistant professor of elementary education at Murray State College and state ACE president, then introduced Miss Norma Pickard, Murray student from Mayfield, who recently received the scholarship awarded by the first district Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Robert Sutherland, who was awarded a scholarship to attend a workshop for a period of three weeks at Northwestern University by the Kentucky Congress, discussed "Here and There at Northwestern."

Gold seal and gold leaf awards were presented in the afternoon.

For the convention were Lucy Joyce, Mae Goheen, Betty Mobley and Betty Jo Powell.

LEFT: Mrs. John E. Kirksey, state president of the Congress of Parents and Teachers, who spoke Tuesday at the district session at Gilbertsville.

RIGHT: Mrs. Howard J. Maughn, national vice-president of the organization, who was one of the featured speakers at the session in Marshall County.

Witches and Spooks to Ride Again: It's Halloween Time!

Calvert City PTA Lists Halloween Party on Monday

The Calvert City Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a Halloween Carnival at the school Monday evening, October 31, at 7 o'clock. Prizes will be awarded to the best dressed girl and boy in the costume parade.

Boy's Club Served Hot Dogs

The Benton Boys' Club enjoyed hot dogs served by their sponsor last Friday night at a meeting in their clubrooms over Riley's Department Store. The group will meet again tonight (October 28).

Lights have been installed in the clubrooms of the Benton Boys Club over Riley's Department Store. A committee has been appointed to collect coins from containers placed in stores around town to help pay club expenses. A spokesman for the group said that only properly identified members of the club, who carry membership cards, are authorized to make solicitations.

BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Downing of Route 2 are the parents of a daughter, Wanda Elaine, born October 5.

Briensburg School Lists Halloween Party for Monday

A BIG Halloween festival is planned for Monday night, October 31, at the Briensburg School.

The event will be highlighted by a costume parade in which prizes will be awarded for the best outfits. The Community Club is sponsoring the party for the benefit of the school. Other entertainment also will be presented.

Benton Hi Party Set for Tonight

Benton High School's big annual halloween festival is on schedule tonight (Friday), with a costume parade, magician's show and art exhibit sharing the limelight.

Spokesmen for the school say it is to be one of the best in several years.

BLACK WIDOW PLAY TONIGHT

There will be plenty of spine-tickling thrills and funnybone-tickling laughs in "The Black Widow," an exciting mystery comedy to be presented by the Junior Women's Club on Friday night, October 28 at 7:30 o'clock at the Benton High School Gym.

The play concerns what happens to the relatives and the friends of Elias Crabtree when they visit his supposedly haunted ranch to hear his will read. They go to the ranch expecting to receive part of Elias' fortune but instead, receive shock after shock when attacked by a ferocious giant spider, man-eating hogs, and a murderer's ghost.

The cast will include Mrs. Dunn as Elias' housekeeper; Miss Elvira Breezel as Elias' niece; Charles Jackson as a friend; Mrs. Jenna Poague as Elias' half-sister; Miss Betty Jo Smith as the "hysterical" hired girl; Mrs. Betty Thompson as Elias' cousin; Charles Nimmo as a brow-beaten husband; Mrs. Jean Austin as the woman lawyer; and Weldon Nelson as the unwitting guest.

For all who already have their Halloween costumes and would like to show them off, there will be a Halloween Costume Parade with a three dollar cash prize for the best costume. To enter, just be at the gym at 7:00 o'clock, thirty minutes early, wearing your costume.

Plans to Leave Benton Church

ELBERT YOUNG, minister of the Benton Church of Christ, who announced that he will move from Benton around the first of the year. He had been with the local church approximately three years. He will return to Columbia, Tennessee.

BIRTH

12 From County At University Of Kentucky

Twelve persons from Marshall County are among the 7,533 students attending the University of Kentucky this semester.

They are Alben Blagg, Paul Darnall, Fred Huffman, Charles Locker, Victor Wallace, Owen McCain, Edsel Prince and John Travis, all of Benton; James Crosby and Joe Ross, both of Hardin; Clarence Frazier and Charlie Holland, both of Gilbertsville.

Marshall County can not provide as good a school program for its children as the wealthier counties provide due to the insufficient revenue that we have. The adoption of Amendment No. 1 will make it possible for the state to give counties such as ours more financial assistance, and thereby assist us in raising the educational level in this county nearer to the state average.

When you vote YES on Constitutional Amendment No. 1, you are voting for the interest of your children and your neighbors' children.

Around The Square

J. L. BRIEN, 82-year-old farmer of Benton, Route 6, has done a lot for the development of farming in Marshall County, and his age hasn't been a drawback in recent years, either.

He has probably contributed as much to the development of strawberries as any other man. He's had berries continuously since 1923 and has constantly experimented with new varieties, mulching, fertilizers, insecticides, etc. The results of his findings have gone a long way toward helping other farmers improve the quality of their produce and have been of great help to the county agents over the period in their efforts to "find out" if new ideas really are any good or not.

So here's a toast to a progressive farmer. The county could well use more like him.

PARTNER BILL, who is quite "stock conscious," showed me this one the other day: An Illinois farmer sold 24 Hereford steers for $48,000.00—an average of $2,000 per head for the highest "take" this year at the Chicago Stock Yards.

TED DORSON, whose sows made headlines last week via successive litters of 16 and 10 pigs in less than 24 hours, rates a plug in his own field—electronics.

Ted has been doing a lot with television, and so far as we know is the only man in the county to delve deeply into it. He has a set at his home and on nights when the weather is "right" can pick up stations in Louisville, Memphis and St. Louis. Things were too wet for much experimenting during the world series television "playbacks," he said.

Ted has developed one receiver which brings in the picture clearly—and another that brings in the sound perfectly. But he hasn't yet got one rigged up that will do both well at the same time. He's considering a "dual" setup utilizing two different aerials.

Although we don't know the first thing about radio or television, it will be interesting to watch Ted as more stations are built closer to home.

THIS BUSINESS of false solicitation must be an annual disease. The TRIBUNE is the only newspaper that has a regular, permanent rural circulation manager who tours the county the year around (but works hardest in the fall). She is Mrs. Effie Bowden, formerly Effie Blagg.

She picks up subscriptions for the TRIBUNE ONLY. But we know of cases where other folks have picked up a dollar saying they represent the "old" paper. The subscriber, thus duped into false belief that he's subscribing to the TRIBUNE, finds himself getting a different one.

If anyone other than Miss Effie calls at your home, they're not representing the Tribune. The only other folks authorized to take subscription money for the paper (and they don't make a home to house canyons) are our country correspondents—names and on mathhead on page two. If you want the TRIBUNE... be sure you get IT and not something else. And if you want something else don't give your dollar to Miss Effie. She's strictly TRIBUNE and has never claimed otherwise.

Fortunately, enough people want our paper that misrepresentation would be a waste of time even if we were so inclined.

THE GOVERNOR of Tennessee wants the name of Kentucky Lake changed to "Tennessee-Kentucky Lake."

We're agin' it strong, of course. The claim is that the lake runs back through Tennessee, and that our neighbor to the south should come in for its plum of publicity.

HERE'S A BEVY of counter arguments, neighbors. The Tennessee River runs through Kentucky but we ain't howled about changing the name of the River. It also runs through a nick of Mississippi and Alabama—and they haven't howled either.

The Tennessee Valley Authority, by name, gives Tennessee a lot of publicity—and it has dams in four states, including Kentucky. It would be just as logical to change the name-scheme of the whole setup.

KENTUCKY LAKE is the lake formed by the Kentucky Dam, which is in Kentucky. We're satisfied, along with Governor Clements to keep it that way and are prepared to do battle (with words, anyway).

The Saga of Another Colorful Fall

By Mary Green

Gee, it's been so long since I've had the time for a column kids all in school...lessons to help master...Dutiful Tom in the Army and demanding a letter a day...I have just run out of "think."

Little things pop up and I think I must remember them for a column...then the day's gone and I'm not remembering. These earthly autumn days, how pretty they make the hill-sides look. Baby Marilyn and I tripped down our emerald path to Daughter Pats today.

The emerald's all gone. Rattle, rattle went the dried, falling leaves...even a crust o' them covered our wading pool. Baby Marilyn begs for the last wad of paper as I sit down on the wad bank and pull off her shoes. The temptation's too great for me...so off I sling mine, which is no trouble. I can't help but feel sad as I think of summer leaving...just like telling a trusted friend goodbye.

Soon now the unceasing music will be stilled...the pulsing throat of summer will give over its last faint sound...mornings filled with birdsong will be quiet, and sad. The song of the cricket with its dog dashing code from grass to grass...the pond frogs with their double basses. All these country sounds will be hushed when Old Man Winter gives his first big blast on his trumpet from the north.

I don't like winter. I'll miss my emerald path and wading this little branch with Miss Polly, New Boss and Baby Marilyn. But then we know summer will come again.

I scratch my head and keep pondering where to start off my column...where did I leave off my last one.

For things with remembering I would say—the week-end visit with the Fred Hunts and the rest of the old neighbors was like cake and honey.

A chat at the bedside of Mrs. Rose Hamlet, who is ill, was much enjoyed. And here's red roses for her galore.

Also meeting a new friend there—Mrs. L. Copeland of Oak Level.

A visit to the little Hunt Cemetery with time to meditate on the lovely friendship of those sleeping so quietly there, unmindful of the song of the sassy meadow lark in a tree above my head.

I must not forget the lovely evening at the C. D. Nichols home at daughter Myrlin's bridal shower...then I turn the pages of my memory book. Here's a birthday for Mrs. Jake Smith—dear old pal—one for Mrs. Curt Johnson...one for Mrs. David Booker, who has moved to Louisville...one for master Benny David Harrison.

Then it's a wedding anniversary for my good readers, Mr. V. Alford of the Mayfield Highway...and well wishes for a very charming person, Mrs. George Long, who is recuperating from a recent operation in a Memphis hospital.

Thanks to Mrs. Hugh Campbell of Sharpe, who remarks: "Mary Green must be a very pleasant person."

And it was wonderful of Fred G. Neuman of Sidlights of Paducah to pen along an invitation to pen scribe for this gang.

"I've never had a curtain call Or held a crowd spellbound: But I have heard an angel say, 'Mommie, where's my gown?'" to visit them at an early date. I can think of nothing I'd like more and I'm going to give that "invite" careful attention.

Then the PTA meeting at Benton High was interesting. Met Mrs. Frank Young, lovely wife of the new Baptist minister.

Also found out who Mrs. "Lightning" Williams was. Now let's see. I'm coming down the line. If Editor Bill and Rayburn knew how sleepy I was they'd never ask Mary Green for a line.

Of course you faithful readers know about this time of year a "Sigh Coolie" day hits me strong and mity. That means kissing the kids goodbye and leaving them in Daughter Pats's motherly care. I tag the cousin, Dorothy Maupin, for a zoom down Paducah way.

That means a day forget your worries at home and window shop and wish you were rich...or the ten cent store man's little girl.

You eat hot dogs and coke over the counter and try on the $4.98 hats...but settle for a 98 cent beret...the clerk says it goes beautifully with my eyes. I don't buy according to my eyes, though...I have to suit my purse.

I look at my eyes...what a laugh...crinkles and wrinkles all around them...and a good prospect for a double chin. Of course, the trip isn't complete without a hello to the nice doctors, nurses, He eyes me from head to toe. I tell him the diet chart is lost. He knows, at 42 a diet chart doesn't matter. If aren't ill and Mary's not ill (in health) no more.

Not Mrs. Higdon, which was an added pleasantry to the visit. The nurse hands me an appointment card which says, May 6, 1950—that's eight months away. Well, maybe they think by then I'll feel bad...but what gets me is to go up there just to say hello to the bunch and they poke a card in my face. Maybe my color was bad or I chewed the corner of my handkerchief too fast. There was something that is detectable to a trained eye...something I failed to notice. Anyway, I'll go back in 1950 and see, Gee, maybe by then I'll be dead. Maybe after all I should hunt up that diet chart and cut down on my eating. Gee, I'm practically nodding.

I remember the nice remark made about this column by the Dr. McClains of Benton. Thank you—words like those keep me trying to write.

I think pretty violets for Jean (Mrs. A. B. Rhea) who escaped severe injury by a close margin by falling through the register and into the basement recently.

I wonder if my critic (Belle Kingsolving), Dear Belle, will pass on this column.

Then I must add the new residence of Doris O'Dell down Sharpe way is a honey. Ten pink toes keep musing my hand...and sighs, "I'm dreamin', mommy." I look at her and think...

PASSING FADS!

The Clamp Would Still Be On

AMONG THE groups favoring Amendment No. 2 on which the voters will be asked to pass November 8 is the First District Education Association. The Marshall County board favors it too. It's the measure which would change an antiquated provision of 50-years standing which keeps Kentucky saddled with inefficient men in top jobs because it's against the law to pay more than $5,000 a year to the state employees in question. And they know the lid at the top keeps pressing down on the folks at the bottom, making raises all along the line impossible. Thus far we haven't learned of a group or organization—management or labor—that has opposed the amendment. Only individuals.

IT HAS BEEN pointed out that two previous efforts to eliminate the $5,000 limit have failed. That's true—but they were different from the present move and we would have voted against them, too. They set no new limit at all—which would have given the legislature a "blank check." The provision in question, however, merely moves up the $5,000 figure...but still keeps a clamp on the state purse strings with a limit that is slightly higher. Thus, if Amendment 2 goes through we'll have the advantage of the old provision in keeping a check on the legislature...and at the same time allow Kentucky to get men capable of doing big jobs which will help all of us.

No Iron Curtain

"We read a lot these days about an Iron Curtain maintained by a certain nation. In contrast, Woodcraft's motives are crystal clear, completely unselfish...there is no Iron Curtain here."

"All may see the relief in a widow's eyes...when the Society's check is handed to her. All may observe how fraternity is made practical when a Camp harvests an ill member's crop...presents a flag to a school...a medal to a student of history. Nor is there any secret when they establish a blood bank, present a wheel chair, or unveil an historical marker." — From an editorial by President Farrar Newberry in Woodmen of the World Magazine.

These are but some of the "plus" benefits Woodmen enjoy along with safe, sound, legal reserve life insurance protection. Ask the local Woodmen representative how you can build security for yourself and your loved ones and enjoy Woodcraft's fraternal, social and civic activities.

EFFIE FINDS TRIBUNE WELL READ IN SHARPE

By Effie Bowden

Our Sharpe community is well-known as "Sharpe." This scribed checked over the little Sharpe Burg a day of last week while the Model "A" was in Fowler's fine garage for repairs.

Of course I knew the Rickmans at Sharpe were my city cousins...and the Robert Elys were old Bentonians.

But I found the Sharpe folks were quite "Tribune-conscious."

There is a real kinship when we all read the same Tribune.

Sharpe has three up-to-date stores, and the old flour mill run by Mr. Roundtree. Several work shops and garages are dotted along the "Main Street" (U. S. Highway 68). The community also has two doctors—Dr. Stinson and Dr. Eddleman.

It's always a sight for sore eyes to visit the Eddleman flower garden and pick out a special plant for my own use. Thanks to the doctor's wife.

Homemakers Discuss Garden Foods

Maple Springs Unit Told to Eat Three Vegetables a Day

"Eat at least three servings of vegetables daily," was the advice of Mrs. Dan Gold and Mrs. Loman Dotson, who spoke on the topic "From the Garden to the Table," at a meeting of the Maple Springs Homemakers Club, October 18 in Mrs. Eula Dotson's home.

They advised also that one green leafy or yellow vegetable be included in the daily menu. Mrs. Jess McNeely, gave the minor lesson on citizenship.

The group selected as its special project for the year the sending of two boxes of clothing to the needy people of Greece. A special donation was made to pen friends.

A well balanced meal was prepared and served at lunch time to the following members: Mesdames Jess McNeely, Sam Henson, Ethel Edwards, Cleve Johnston, Dan Gold, Loman Dotson, Max Wolfe, Jess Gregory, Solon Henson, Jesse Jones, and Eula Dotson; two new members, Mrs. A. G. Childers, and Mrs. Raymond Byers, and Club October 18 in Mrs. Eula Dotson's home.

The next meeting will be November 15 at 10 a. m. in Mrs. Solon Henson's home. Plans will then be made for the group's Christmas program.

Warm Morning, fireplace lining, grates and other parts at Heath Hardware and Furniture.

COOKING POINTS OFFERED BY 2 HOMEMAKERS

Methods of cooking and serving vegetables to save their nutritive value and increase their appetizing appeal were discussed October 14 at a meeting of the Briensburg Homemakers Club in Mrs. Wayne Wyatt's home.

Mrs. Frank Greenfield and Mrs. Wyatt presented the program and served a meal at noon. Mrs. Ray Wyatt, citizenship chairman, discussed projects the club might sponsor for the betterment of the community.

A book review, "The Other Wise Man," was given also. Those attending included Mrs. Marvin Culp, Mrs. Early Dunn, Mrs. Frank Greenfield, Mrs. William Heath, Mrs. George Locker, Mrs. Paul Moser, Mrs. Jack Perlman, Mrs. Solon Smith, Mrs. Mary Wyatt, and Mrs. Ray Wyatt.

Garden Foods Topic of Brewers Homemakers Unit

A lunch prepared and served by Mrs. Paul Creason and Mrs. Hal Perry, and a discussion of the month's topic, "From the Garden to the Table," were the highlights of a meeting of the Brewers Homemakers Club last Thursday at Mrs. Carl Chester's home.

Recipes were studied and discussed. Mrs. Guy Chester gave the reading and Mrs. C. L. Faughn, the devotion. The group discussed what to do to make the club better and to help others.

Those attending: Mesdames C. L. Faughn, Earl Cole, Joe Smith, Novice Lawrence, Homer Chester, Alton Ross, Bill Perry, Guy Chester, Coy Copeland, Carl Chester, Hafford Staples and Jimmie Owens.

DEMONSTRATIONS OF TOBACCO STRIPPING SET

Claud Rankin of the Tobacco Section, U. S. Department of Agriculture, will hold stripping and sorting demonstrations of Burley Tobacco. All Burley growers are asked to attend the meeting nearest them and to bring a stick of their burley for stripping.

Since there will be a lot of low quality tobacco this year, it is important that it be properly sorted into grades for the greatest return.

The meetings will be held as follows: Benton High School, Tuesday, November 1, 9:30 a. m.; Brewers High School, Tuesday, November 1, 1:00 p. m.; Calvert City High School, Wednesday, November 2, 9:30 a. m.; Sharpe High School, Wednesday, November 2, 1:00 p. m.

Solomon Can't Sell Business to Kentucky Utilities

L. A. SOLOMON, owner of the Rural Electric Service at Calvert City, has been denied permission by a government agency to sell his privately-owned company to another private enterprise, the Kentucky Utilities Company.

The Public Service Commission, sitting at Frankfort, decreed Monday, that Solomon must sell to the Jackson Purchase Rural Electric Co-Op, thus climaxing a seven-month struggle set off by a group of Calvert citizens who felt they should have a say in the sale of Mr. Solomon's private property since it is a public utility.

THE COMMISSION, agreeing with the citizens group, said that since many of the 700 families which use Solomon's service had to move their homes away from Gilbertville when Kentucky Dam was built, they should be given an opportunity to buy TVA power through the co-op.

At the present time, however, the Kentucky Utilities Company furnishes power both to Mr. Solomon's system and to the Co-op, neither being able to draw from TVA the necessary power.

The issue at stake throughout the dispute was whether or not a government agency can dictate to whom a utility must be sold. The commission, admitting that Kentucky Utilities

Committee Head Hails Move

MR. CHARLES Hall, secretary of the Calvert City Committee, said the results were "most gratifying" and that the decision "was a very democratic one."

The Paducah Sun-Democrat advocated the sale to the co-op and the Louisville Courier-Journal, in an editorial Tuesday, commended the commission for a decision "in favor of the people."

Those in Calvert who favor the co-op-TVA setup contend that the rates would be much lower than under Kentucky Utilities, and the commission took this into consideration, together with the wishes of those who signed the petition, in making its decision.

or not a government agency can dictate to whom a utility must be sold. The commission, admitting that Kentucky Utilities would be able to do a good job and make improvements justifying its decision by saying the co-op appeared to be "better bet in the long run."

ALTHOUGH it never became fully apparent through the litigation that the commission has a legal right to make such a decision, the three-man group acted on the historical precedent of other groups which have "never yielded" until the courts take it away.

In the meantime, Mr. Solomon has refused to be drawn out on his future plans. Although the commission can stop sale to a firm of his own choice, the social state system is not yet so far advanced that it can actually force him to sell. Mr. Solomon refused to comment when contacted by news reporters after the commission's decree.

New 1950 Studebaker
The aerodynamic "next look" in cars!

ON THE MARKET only a little more than one month—and already the fastest selling car in all Studebaker history!

That's the amazing record to date of this dramatic new 1950 Studebaker. Public demand for this breath-taking automobile was so tremendous in September, Studebaker did its biggest month's business of all time!

That's just a beginning, apparently. All over the nation, day by day, people are buying new 1950 Studebakers more and more eagerly.

Stop in. Take a close-up look at Studebaker's trim, sleek "next look" styling. Watch how fast you decide to get a 1950 Studebaker of your own.

More for your money! Low, long, alluring!

Higher compression Champion and Commander engines of increased horsepower
• Self-stabilizing coil spring front wheel suspension
• Wide-rim wheels and extra-low-pressure tires
• Brakes automatically adjust themselves
• Symmetrically centered variable ratio steering
• Oversize windows and windshield
• Glare-proof "black light" instrument panel dials
• Automatic choke control.

Travis Grocery Opens in West End

Benton's fast-growing west side addition has another new business this week, the Travis Grocery at 12th and Pine St. It is owned and operated by Willard Travis and is located in a new building.

"It's Parents' Duty To Teach Children Spiritual Values"

An address by Rev. Raines, pastor of Brewers Methodist Church, was one of the highlights of the Brewers Parent-Teacher Association Monday night, October 17.

He discussed the responsibility of parents for teaching moral and spiritual values to the child.

A girls' quartet, composed of Verna Jane Houser, Dora Parker, June and Frances Creason, sang two selections.

Mrs. Faughn reviewed the objectives of PTA and plans were made to conduct a membership drive. Refreshments were served after the business session.
